

The Pilgrim Center sits on the Sacred Acre at Mission Nombre de Dios with beautiful views of the Rustic Altar and the coastal waters.

“There is a special peace of heart in the “sacred acre” found nowhere else. I visit regularly and bring everyone who visits me to come and experience the love of Our Lady.”

- Susan Egan, Order of Malta

“Marian shrines are scattered throughout the world. They are like so many milestones, set up to mark the stages of our itinerary on earth; they enable us to pause for a rest, to restore ourselves from the journey, to regain joy and security on the way, together with strength to go on. They are like oases in the desert, formed to provide water and shade.”

— Pope John Paul II
